

Monday, 19 March

The Wings of Nimrod R.1 XV249 arrived to join the rest of the Aircraft at the RAF Cosford Museum.

It was a tight fit driving under the Cosford railway bridge, as clearly seen.

The 35 metre wingspan will now have to be assembled by Engineers at the museum.